

EUSALP energy efficiency network

Recommendations to strengthen macro-regional cooperation in the field of energy efficiency in enterprises

The EUSALP energy efficiency network will increase the energy efficiency in alpine enterprises.

- Increasing energy efficiency in alpine enterprises by increasing the ...
 - Information level
 - Awareness level
 - Practicability of funding programmes
- Using and improving existing mechanisms and financial means

The EUSALP energy efficiency network will increase cooperation

Considering these hard facts will lead to success of the networked cooperation

- Typical project steps
 - Clear targets, tasks, mile stones
 - Assignment of roles and responsibilities
 - Defining processes as operation and decision orientation
 - Process monitoring and success control
- Communication
 - Direct ways of communication
 - Visualisation of information

Considering these hard facts will lead to success of the networked cooperation

- Contractual issues
 - Performance indicators
 - Compliance with the contract
- Providing enough resources

Considering these soft facts will even more lead to success of the networked cooperation

- Core team members of major network partners
- Starting points
 - Gathering experiences of existing networks
 - Starting with easy issues
 - Quickly showing results and success

Considering these soft facts will even more lead to success of the networked cooperation

- Open, cooperative collaboration
- Social issues
 - Cultural fit of team leader
 - Personnel continuity
 - Charismatic Leading figures
 - Confidence-building measures - Creation of equal partnerships
 - Neutral network coach

Contact

Nicole Hartl

Senior Expert Buildings

Österreichische Energieagentur - Austrian Energy Agency

nicole.hartl@energyagency.at

Tel +43 (0)1 586 15 24 - 108 | Mob +43 664 810 7858

Mariahilfer Strasse 136 | 1150 Vienna | Austria

www.energyagency.at

 @at_AEA

Providing answers through expert know-how to questions of the energy future – this goal is supported by the Austrian Energy Agency with its strategic personnel development.

The Austrian Energy Agency is ÖNORM ISO 50001:2011 and ISO 29990:2010 certified.