1 General Context

1.1 EUSALP and the AlpGov projects

The EU Strategy for the Alpine Region EUSALP was adopted by the European Council in 2015. EUSALP includes 48 regions in Austria, France, Germany, Italy, Liechtenstein, Slovenia, and Switzerland. As its main objective, EUSALP aims *“to ensure that this region remains one of the most attractive areas in Europe, taking better advantage of its assets and seizing its opportunities for sustainable and innovative development in a European context.”*¹ To this end, the strategy focuses on four priority policy areas: economic growth and innovation, mobility and connectivity, environment and energy, sound macro-regional governance and institutional capacity building.

The AlpGov project², implemented in the frame of the Interreg Alpine Space Programme from 2016 to 2019 under the leadership of the Bavarian State Ministry of the Environment and Consumer Protection (StMUV), aimed at supporting efficient EUSALP implementation in a systematic transnational multi-level governance approach. The consortium, representing all EUSALP Action Groups (AG), initiated appropriate governance structures and mechanisms mainly on AG level. Furthermore, the project partners fostered synergies with the General Assembly and Executive Board (EB) as well as with further institutional actors in alpine policy.

AlpGov 2 is the follow-up project³, running in the Alpine Space Programme from 2020 to 2022, with Lombardy Region as the Lead Partner. StMUV is responsible for the thematic Work Package 1 (WP 1): “Skills development and EUSALP Action Groups empowerment” aiming at professionalising AG work and ensuring proper decision-making, based on given expertise and appropriate capacities of EUSALP actors. One main output shall be the prototype of a “Learning Environment for building capacities on AG and EB level for such topics which are of specific relevance also for the successful implementation of the other WPs”. To support the development of this prototype, StMUV assigned PLANVAL as external expert.

1.2 Heading for an EUSALP Learning Environment

In the frame of AlpGov 2 WP 1 and the EUSALP learning environment (LE) process, the following objectives shall be achieved:

- Prototyping, implementation, and ex-post evaluation of an exemplary LE for the EUSALP
- Design of the LE as a well-structured, module-based and innovative learning system, comprising the co-creation of adequate educational contents and didactic methods
- Professionalization of AG work and proper decision-making by capacity building and empowerment of AG members and other relevant actors such as the EB to implement the EUSALP Action Plan and the AG work plans more effectively and sustainably
- Build upon the learning experiences gained in the frame of other macro-regional strategies (MRS)
- Coordination with other AlpGov 2 WPs, above all WP 3, to create synergies
- Outline of ways to transfer and improve the results into activities beyond AlpGov 2

Structure and schedule for setting up the LE are laid down in the “Work Concept Outline” as of 9 April 2020. Accordingly, the process consists of three main elements:

- Part I: Development of a concept for the EUSALP LE
- Part II: Implementing the EUSALP LE modules
- Part III: Presentation and evaluation of the impact of learning activities on AG performance

² EUSALP (2020): AlpGov

³ EUSALP (2020): AlpGov 2

Throughout these three parts and the respective Activities A to I, three fundamental approaches are combined:

- Full focus on the capacities, resources and especially the needs of the key target groups, i.e. AG leaders and members, EB members and cooperating partners.
- Together with these key target groups, co-creation and prototyping of the LE and the capacity building modules for topics of strategic relevance, based on an iterative Design Thinking process⁴.
- Application of agile learning principles and stimulation of organisational development with respective incentives for the whole EUSALP governance system.

2 Analysis of Topics with Strategic Relevance and Modules for Capacity Building: Objectives and Methodology

In Part I of the work process, which is about conceptualizing the LE, emphasis is laid on understanding the respective needs of EUSALP actors. Activity A and B as the first operational tasks intend to build a common ground for the LE by

- Revealing framework conditions and challenges for capacity building
- Identifying concrete learning needs
- Identifying topics of strategic relevance for capacity building

Four work steps serve to achieve these objectives:

1. Initial framing of the capacity building context
2. Exploratory interviews with AG leaders
3. Online survey for EB members, AG leaders and AG members
4. Deriving and outlining relevant topics for capacity building as a synthesis from the previous work steps

The following sub-chapters briefly describe the methodology of framing, interviews, and online survey. The corresponding results, the centrepiece of this report, are summarised in chapter 3. Finally, chapter 4 presents the outlook of the upcoming steps towards the EUSALP LE.

2.1 Initial Framing

To contextualise the current EUSALP situation concerning capacity building and institutional governance as well as to capture the expectations of StMUV, a kick off meeting was held in April 2020, followed by two exchanges with StMUV about EUSALP strategy, structures, processes, stakeholders and contents. Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, all exchanges took place virtually. To dive deeper, a screening of relevant documents and further sources of information took place. This initial framing corresponds to the Design Thinking phase 1 “Understand”.

⁴ Design Thinking is a systematic, human-centered way to solving complex problems. User needs and requirements as well as user-oriented innovation are central to the process. Such a process usually consists of six phases: from understanding and observing target groups needs via focusing on central issues to generating ideas, elaborating prototypes of solutions, and testing them. More information e.g. at Hasso-Plattner-Institut / School of Design Thinking at University of Potsdam (2020): What is Design Thinking?

The scope of the desk research included the following sources:

- AG Work Plans (2016-2020, 2020+), management reports, governance documents (e.g. Rules of Procedure for EB and AG)
- Documents and products from AG projects
- Relevant documents from other MRS, especially the European Union Strategy for the Baltic Sea Region (EUBSR) and the EUBSR Horizontal Action “Capacity”, above all the capacity building programme, as well as relevant cross-MRS and INTERACT initiatives and documents, e.g. “Building common capacity support environment for enhanced implementation of the EU macro-regional strategies” (2018)
- Relevant EC documents, e.g. EC Report on the implementation of EU macro-regional strategies (COM (2020) 186 / 578)

2.2 Exploratory Interviews with AG Leaders

The basic comprehension gained by the initial framing set the ground to design interviews with the AG leaders to further deepen the understanding of the situation, and especially to explore the capacity building needs from the perspective of the AG leaders.

- Method: Structured interviews, mainly qualitative. Focus on personal experiences and needs. Combining a general Appreciative Inquiry approach addressing individual experience (part A, 5 main questions, several sub-questions) and specific questions on fields of work and ideas for improvement (part B, 3 main and several sub-questions; interview guideline in Annex I). One pretest interview with one AG leader.
- Setting: Personal interviews on invitation, conducted by phone or video conference, between 3 and 17 July 2020
- Participants: 9 AG leaders (1 per AG)
- Duration: 45-60 minutes per interview
- Post-processing: Qualitative analysis of interview results and presentation to StMUV

2.3 Online Survey with EB Members, AG Leaders and AG Members

Based on the results of the exploratory interviews, a comprehensive but concise online survey was developed.

- Method: Structured survey with a total of 17 questions, mainly qualitative (single choice, multiple choice, and open questions). Foci both on individual perspective and needs as well as overall perspective on EUSALP as a whole. Two pretests (AG leader, AG member)
- Setting: Online survey addressing all EB members, AG leaders and AG members, using Survey Monkey web tool. Open 22 September to 13 October 2020.
- Participants: 96 (EB members, AG leaders, AG members)
- Duration: 10-20 minutes
- Post-processing: Semi-statistical analysis of the results

3.1 Exploratory Interviews with AG Leaders

The following summary shows the main results of the exploratory interviews with 9 AG leaders.

| Role, fields of work, tasks | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> AG leaders perceive their role as interesting and challenging both on operational and strategic level Heterogenous picture concerning interpretation of role and priority setting (e.g. preference of strategic or operational tasks) Content related work clearly rated most important, diffuse assessment of project management Numerous and diverse tasks to be done within the fields of work Coordination and reporting as the most time consuming and least efficient fields of work Comparison of importance and time effort shows that engagement correponds rather well with relevance Appreciation of the experience exchange with other AG leaders and high hopes for the LE. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

3.2 Online Survey for EB Members, AG Leaders and AG Members

The main results of the online survey with 96 participants are presented below, highlighting issues of particular relevance for identifying potential topics for capacity building in the frame of the EUSALP LE. Where not mentioned differently, the results are related to the entirety of participants. Otherwise, the groups EB members, AG leaders and AG members are explicitly addressed.

3.3 Identified Topics of Strategic Relevance for Capacity Building

The work steps implemented so far, covering the initial framing of the EUSALP capacity building context, the exploratory interviews with AG leaders, and the online survey for EB members, AG leaders and AG members, provide the basis for identifying topics of particular relevance for capacity building in the frame of the EUSALP Learning Environment (and probably also beyond this project). This first step of synthesis fully focusses on the challenges and needs revealed by the participating EUSALP actors.

When aggregating the broad variety of aspects determined as relevant, which range from very generic issues to very specific details, we concentrated on elements with the following characteristics:

- Elements assessed as basically relevant for all target groups or for single target groups (AG leaders, AG members, EB members)
- Elements rated as particularly important or valuable for all or single target groups
- Elements covering different superordinate needs, themes, and fields of work (i.e. rather covering the horizontal range of important items than limiting to only one or two items)
- Elements promising effective and agile capacity building impact
- Elements which can be operationalised and implemented as capacity building modules in the LE, also considering available resources

Applying these guidelines, we identified five strategic and horizontal topics of relevance for capacity building in the LE. They can be regarded as the “sweet spots of learning” in the given context.⁶ These topics constitute the frame for the five capacity building modules of the LE; they partially address specific target groups (AG leaders, AG members, EB members). The specific key questions linked to these topics, arising from the exploratory interviews and online survey, are listed below. These questions illustrate and define the scope of the modules, which aim at generating appropriate answers to the challenges addressed. The formulation follows the so-called “How might we-questions”, a central method in the Design Thinking phase of focussing on crucial challenges. To keep the picture clear, the number of key questions is limited to three core elements per topic (without claiming to be exhaustive).

1. Impact-oriented work design (especially relevant for AG leaders and EB members):
 - How can we develop a joint understanding of the tasks, goals and impacts to be achieved by the EUSALP bodies?
 - How can we increase effectiveness of our work on the way towards the intended impacts?
 - How can we foster an impact-oriented working culture in the frame of EUSALP?
2. Efficient multidimensional governance (relevant for all target groups, i.e. AG leaders, AG members, EB members):
 - How can we enhance internal cooperation between the EUSALP actors, especially between AGs and EB?
 - How can we better involve external stakeholders from EU to local level to promote strategic topics?
 - How can we design an efficient cross-sector and cross-level way of working?
3. Activation of politicians (especially relevant for AG leaders and EB members):
 - How can we successfully address EUSALP issues and demands to politicians at all relevant levels?
 - How can we better sensitise, mobilise and activate politicians for EUSALP concerns?

⁶ Agile learning, one of the fundamental principles applied in this project, seeks to optimize the intersection of learner, organisation and environment (“sweet spot of learning”): the bigger the sweet spot, the more effective and professional the learning success of individual and organisation.

4. Innovation and co-creation (especially relevant for AG leaders and AG members):
 - How can we effectively apply adequate innovation and co-creation methods in AG work?
 - How can we promote a collaborative and co-creative working culture in the frame of EUSALP?
5. Agile project development and fundraising (especially relevant for AG leaders and AG members):
 - How can we efficiently design projects of macro-regional relevance to address transnational key challenges in the Alpine region?
 - How can we design projects that target stakeholder needs and generate tangible impact on the ground?
 - How can we secure and enhance financing of transnational projects?

The upcoming capacity building process concentrates on these topics and the related questions as outlined above. The concrete contents, formats, methods, schedules, and organisational details of the five corresponding capacity building modules are going to be elaborated in the form of a roadmap, due in January 2021. The modules are planned to be implemented in a physical setting, i.e. not virtually, between spring and autumn 2020 (see outlook in chapter 4).

Other issues, which are, according to the analysis results, of elevated, but less relevance than the five main topics, are kept on a longlist of capacity building issues (including above all tailor-made communication in general, remote / virtual collaboration, knowledge about EUSALP structures and processes, managing complexity, entrepreneurial thinking and action). If reasonable and feasible, such issues can be considered within the frame of the five modules, at other occasions beyond this project, or at a later stage of the LE.

6 Annex II: Online Survey Questionnaire

EUSALP Learning Environment: Online Survey

Dear EUSALP Executive Board members, Action Group leaders and Action Group members!

Macroregional strategies are all about co-creating solutions for common challenges, transferring knowledge across borders... and sometimes about entering new ground together. In order to support the EUSALP actors on their way forward, the AlpGov 2 project (Work Package T-1) is developing a Learning Environment with 5 co-creative capacity building modules.

We invite all Executive Board members, Action Group leaders and Action Group members to participate in this online survey. The goal is to gain a deeper understanding of your experiences, perceptions and needs, and to build a common ground for tailoring the EUSALP Learning Environment according to your demands.

The survey takes about 20 minutes. We are looking forward to your answers! The survey is anonymous.
