Congress Innsbruck

Energy Transition in the Alps

Is the energy transition in the Alpine macro-region on track? On the 2nd of October, 200 representatives from politics, research&science, energy suppliers, associations, NGOs and society will discuss which steps are needed to support the energy transition in the EUSALP.

No energy transition without dialogue!

That is why the 2nd EUSALP Energy Conference offers workshops and exhibits interesting hands-on projects to trigger exchange.

The programme is online – register now!
